

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN or SNOW;
With Black ABOVE—WILL WARMER
grow.
If Black's BENEATH—COLDER it will be.
Unless Black's shown—no change
we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock
to-morrow evening.

TO GROVER FROM HORNBLOWER AND PECKHAM

We are going, Grover, going;
Ebbas the Mugwump life-time fast;
And the Democratic shadows
Gather on that Senate blast.
Let thine arm, oh Grover, raise us,
Hush thy sobs and bow thine ear;
Listen to the great heart secrets,
Thou, and thou alone must hear.

Though our scared and wumpish legions
Bear their eagles high no more;
Though our wrecked and slugged ambitions
Strew that dreadful Senate floor;
Though no meek cuckoos surround us,
Prompt to do their master's will,
We must perish like a Mugwump,
With its neck stretched out for swill.

Let no sippant, sneering snapper
Mock the lions thus laid low;
'Twas no foe's hand that felled us,
'Twas your own that struck the blow;
Yours, who, pilloved on our bosoms,
Turn'd aside from party's say;
Yours, who, wild with great I-amness,
Madly threw two wumps away.

Should the Democratic rabble
Dare assail thy fame for this,
When it comes to glorying Grover,
It will be a lick amiss.
For behold, the gods bear witness,
Altars, augurs, weather-facts,
For thy sake we now have got it
Where the chicken got the axe.

We are going, Grover, going!
Hark! the Davehillistic cry,
They are coming; quick, our courage!
Let us face them, but to die.
Ah! no more, now, large ambitions
Shall our heads exulting swell,
May the saints and angels guard thee,
Grover, Master, Boss, farwell!

—New York Sun.

LANDRETH'S Seeds are the very best.

INSURE with P. S. Kemper at 309 Court street.

SPECIAL glove sale at Hoeftich's. Don't miss it.

GET your Easter dress at Hoeftich's. Trimmings free.

For fresh, pure and reliable garden seed call on H. H. Cox & Son.

AN Easter Hop will be given by Austin's String Orchestra Monday, March 26th, at the Neptune Hall.

Mrs. L. V. Davis has just received from New York a beautiful line of mourning and fancy veiling.

LANDRETH'S Garden Seeds have stood the test for years and are the best. They are sold only at Chenoweth's.

Miss ANNA CLARK has returned from Cincinnati with the latest styles in dress-making. Rooms over W. S. Frank's law office.

A FINE son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Shannon in Chicago Sunday. Mrs. Shannon was formerly Miss Sarah Kane of this city.

IT'S SO IF IT'S IN
THE LEDGER.

WILLIAM LALLY was in a very critical condition all last night from the bursting of a blood vessel of the nose. He was painting all day yesterday and strained a blood vessel in his head which bursted after he had retired. Dr. Owens was called and remained with the patient for several hours. Mr. Lally is getting along as well as could be expected.

SCHOOL NOTES.

Report of Pleasant Hill (Springdale) District No. 37.

The Trustees are John Elliott, C. P. Vawter and C. Moore. Teacher, Miss Bettie Bean. Number of scholars in attendance 31, which was very good. This District has long needed a schoolhouse, never having owned one before, but having the school taught in an old log church, which was by no means suitable or comfortable. Therefore it was highly gratifying to find that the order of the Superintendent had been obeyed and a large commodious schoolhouse, capable of accommodating all the scholars who are likely to attend school, has been erected. The house is pleasantly located upon ground donated by John Elliott, who has taken much interest in the school and done much toward accomplishing the erection of such a handsome schoolhouse. It is well furnished and equipped and I found the school in fine working order. Miss Bean has had special training for the profession and proves herself thoroughly competent as shown by the progress and deportment of her scholars, which were very satisfactory.

G. W. BLATTERMAN,
Supt. Public Schools, Mason County.

Here's Your Chance!

With the opening of the Spring Season THE LEDGER will afford a splendid chance for enterprising merchants to advertise their goods.

A Large Extra Easter Edition

will be printed, consisting of Eight Pages, with a handsome cover, and it will be the largest paper ever printed in Mayville.

Saturday, March 24th, will be the date. A Representative will call on you in the interest of this large edition and of your own.

There will be a large extra edition, with a SPECIAL COUPON for The Magic City.

Five regular Coupons and the Easter Coupon and Twenty Cents will secure Nos. 4 and 5 of The Magic City.

The Easter Coupon alone and Ten Cents will secure No. 5 of The Magic City.

THE TIGHT CHECKREIN.

Dr. Paris Wheeler, V. S., Also Responds to "The Ledger's" Request.

In answer to THE LEDGER's request for the views of our Veterinary Surgeons on the brutal practice of tight reining, we have already printed the letter of Dr. J. D. Quantz.

Today we have the pleasure of giving the views of Dr. Paris Wheeler:

Editor Ledger: Reining horses by gag-rein or over-check is cruel and brutal. The side-rein answers well and is severe enough. The gag rein forces the head into an unnatural position. The upper bit holds the head so the animal cannot move it downward and only by a severe effort sideways. When the handreins are pulled the only thing they do to check the animal is to pry the lower jaw open. The gag-shanks sometimes cause paralysis of upper lips by pressure on the facial nerves; also weak eyes by pressing on angular vein and sometimes blindness, and at top of head abscesses.

There are many and greater cruel practices that should be looked after. They can be seen any day on the street. Cities of less importance and smaller than this have S. P. C. A. There are more good men and women here than any city on earth of its size, and all they require is some one to start the ball rolling, and many will follow and be proud of having done good. Respectfully,

PARIS WHEELER, M. R. C. V. S.

Who will be first to move in the matter of organizing a S. P. C. A. in Mayville? THE LEDGER will lend its hearty support to the movement, having already secured the passage of an ordinance that will render organized effort effective. Let us hear from the humane people of this devoted city.

THE Executive Committee of the Kentucky State Teachers' Association has decided that the annual meeting of the association this year shall be held in Danville, June 27-29.

GEORGE MCANDREWS, white, and Willie Fields, colored, boys between 15 and 18 years, quarreled at Lexington when McAndrews drew his knife and stabbed Fields between the shoulders, inflicting a dangerous wound.

A DELEGATION consisting of 130 State College boys went down from Lexington to Frankfort Saturday on a pleasure excursion. They visited the State House, the Penitentiary, the Feeble-minded Institute and other places of interest. We presume the reporter mistook the Legislature for the Feeble minded Institute.

WHAT NEXT?

CAN'T THE GOLD BRICK MAN COME THIS WAY?

He Might Find a Quick Purchaser For His Wares, When You Think What the New City Directory(?) Is.

Mayville has a new "City Directory(?)".

We deem it advisable to tell you in the beginning that it is a "City Directory(?)" for you would never know it in the world if someone didn't tell.

You might take it for a patent medicine pamphlet, with a few advertisements of business men of Mayville.

To prevent you from doing this we give you grave and solemn warning that if you see a little book with every tenth other word misspelled, with 1,068 names in, and headed "Please do not loan this book," you will know it is the new City Directory(?)

May the time soon come when we will be delivered from such fakes.

They are no good to man or beast, and the sooner our merchants cease to patronize such bold cases of imposition and ridiculous pieces of advertising, the better it will be for all concerned, and the sooner we will have cause to rejoice for a grand deliverance. We will be delivered of an advertising fake that is as injurious as it is unfair.

The author of this new "City Directory(?)" says in his "preface":

"In compiling this Directory I have spared neither time nor means."

Well, now, he didn't need to say that. The book itself shows he has spared no time on it.

Then the author says:

"I think the Republic will sustain my thought, it is an accurate manual of the city."

No we won't, either—not this part of it at least. We really do not think that such an "intellectual star" can entertain such a thought. You are certainly not foolish enough to think it an "accurate manual".

Mayville has a population of over 8,000; you have 1,068 names in your book and many of them are repeated. Not 1,000 names of individuals are published in your Directory(?) You certainly haven't the nerve to ask us to "sustain your thought?" But then a person who has nerve enough to publish over his name such a book as the "City Directory," and call it an "accurate manual," has nerve enough to do almost anything once.

Why hasn't the "City Directory(?)" the names of many residents of the city who were born and reared within the city limits and who are now among the principal business men of the city?

Where are the names of H. P. Chenoweth, Chris. D. Russell, Thos. M. Russell, Stanley Watson, George Atkinson, C. D. Shepard, Charles Trapp, Captain Jacob Miller, Harry Haulman, William Spromberg, Thomas Dickson, Thomas Coleman, William H. and Charles B. Davis of the mail service, William Clooney, Benjamin Huff, Charles T. Huff, Thomas Hancock, O. D. Burgoyne and hundreds of others we could mention?

Oh, it is a great City Directory(?) we don't think.

And then in his "preface" did you see this beautiful piece of English grammar?

"I desire especially to instruct your attention," etc.

Is not that worthy of your attention? "Instruct your attention." That's a new line sure enough, and THE LEDGER hastens to use it this morning before the originator secures a copyright to it.

Wonder where the author got that line anyhow?

If the author would have copied the list of subscribers of THE DAILY LEDGER he would have had more names than he did secure.

But this is enough. The book is the greatest farce ever on our table, and why the business men accept of such is more than we can understand.

MAYSVILLE WEATHER.

What We May Expect For the Next Twenty-four Hours.

THE LEDGER'S WEATHER SIGNALS.

White streamer—FAIR;
Blue—RAIN or SNOW;
With Black ABOVE—WILL WARMER
grow.
If Black's BENEATH—COLDER it will
be.
Unless Black's shown—no change
we'll see.

The above forecasts are made for a period of thirty-six hours, ending at 8 o'clock
to-morrow evening.

LANDRETH'S Seeds are the very best.
INSURE with P. S. Kemper at 309 Court street.
SPECIAL glove sale at Hoeftich's. Don't miss it.
GET your Easter dress at Hoeftich's. Trimmings free.
For fresh, pure and reliable garden seed call on H. H. Cox & Son.
AN Easter Hop will be given by Austin's String Orchestra Monday, March 26th, at the Neptune Hall.
Mrs. L. V. Davis has just received from New York a beautiful line of mourning and fancy veiling.
LANDRETH'S Garden Seeds have stood the test for years and are the best. They are sold only at Chenoweth's.
Miss ANNA CLARK has returned from Cincinnati with the latest styles in dress-making. Rooms over W. S. Frank's law office.
A FINE son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Shannon in Chicago Sunday. Mrs. Shannon was formerly Miss Sarah Kane of this city.

THE Executive Committee of the Kentucky State Teachers' Association has decided that the annual meeting of the association this year shall be held in Danville, June 27-29.

GEORGE MCANDREWS, white, and Willie Fields, colored, boys between 15 and 18 years, quarreled at Lexington when McAndrews drew his knife and stabbed Fields between the shoulders, inflicting a dangerous wound.

A DELEGATION consisting of 130 State College boys went down from Lexington to Frankfort Saturday on a pleasure excursion. They visited the State House, the Penitentiary, the Feeble-minded Institute and other places of interest. We presume the reporter mistook the Legislature for the Feeble minded Institute.

WHAT NEXT?

CAN'T THE GOLD BRICK MAN COME THIS WAY?

He Might Find a Quick Purchaser For His Wares, When You Think What the New City Directory(?) Is.

Mayville has a new "City Directory(?)".

We deem it advisable to tell you in the beginning that it is a "City Directory(?)" for you would never know it in the world if someone didn't tell.

You might take it for a patent medicine pamphlet, with a few advertisements of business men of Mayville.

To prevent you from doing this we give you grave and solemn warning that if you see a little book with every tenth other word misspelled, with 1,068 names in, and headed "Please do not loan this book," you will know it is the new City Directory(?)

May the time soon come when we will be delivered from such fakes.

They are no good to man or beast, and the sooner our merchants cease to patronize such bold cases of imposition and ridiculous pieces of advertising, the better it will be for all concerned, and the sooner we will have cause to rejoice for a grand deliverance. We will be delivered of an advertising fake that is as injurious as it is unfair.

The author of this new "City Directory(?)" says in his "preface":

"In compiling this Directory I have spared neither time nor means."

Well, now, he didn't need to say that. The book itself shows he has spared no time on it.

Then the author says:

"I think the Republic will sustain my thought, it is an accurate manual of the city."

No we won't, either—not this part of it at least. We really do not think that such an "intellectual star" can entertain such a thought. You are certainly not foolish enough to think it an "accurate manual".

Mayville has a population of over 8,000; you have 1,068 names in your book and many of them are repeated. Not 1,000 names of individuals are published in your Directory(?) You certainly haven't the nerve to ask us to "sustain your thought?" But then a person who has nerve enough to publish over his name such a book as the "City Directory," and call it an "accurate manual," has nerve enough to do almost anything once.

Why hasn't the "City Directory(?)" the names of many residents of the city who were born and reared within the city limits and who are now among the principal business men of the city?

Where are the names of H. P. Chenoweth, Chris. D. Russell, Thos. M. Russell, Stanley Watson, George Atkinson, C. D. Shepard, Charles Trapp, Captain Jacob Miller, Harry Haulman, William Spromberg, Thomas Dickson, Thomas Coleman, William H. and Charles B. Davis of the mail service, William Clooney, Benjamin Huff, Charles T. Huff, Thomas Hancock, O. D. Burgoyne and hundreds of others we could mention?

Oh, it is a great City Directory(?) we don't think.

And then in his "preface" did you see this beautiful piece of English grammar?

"I desire especially to instruct your attention," etc.

Is not that worthy of your attention? "Instruct your attention." That's a new line sure enough, and THE LEDGER hastens to use it this morning before the originator secures a copyright to it.

Wonder where the author got that line anyhow?

If the author would have copied the list of subscribers of THE DAILY LEDGER he would have had more names than he did secure.

But this is enough. The book is the greatest farce ever on our table, and why the business men accept of such is more than we can understand.

It may be out of sympathy this time on the promise of the author never to do the like again within a hundred miles of Mayville. If he promises this every citizen of Mason county should contribute to his fund.

THE Executive Committee of the Kentucky State Teachers' Association has decided that the annual meeting of the association this year shall be held in Danville, June 27-29.

GEORGE MCANDREWS, white, and Willie Fields, colored, boys between 15 and 18 years, quarreled at Lexington when McAndrews drew his knife and stabbed Fields between the shoulders, inflicting a dangerous wound.

A DELEGATION consisting of 130 State College boys went down from Lexington to Frankfort Saturday on a pleasure excursion. They visited the State House, the Penitentiary, the Feeble-minded Institute and other places of interest. We presume the reporter mistook the Legislature for the Feeble minded Institute.

WHAT NEXT?

CAN'T THE GOLD BRICK MAN COME THIS WAY?

He Might Find a Quick Purchaser For His Wares, When You Think What the New City Directory(?) Is.

Mayville has a new "City Directory(?)".

We deem it advisable to tell you in the beginning that it is a "City Directory(?)" for you would never know it in the world if someone didn't tell.

You might take it for a patent medicine pamphlet, with a few advertisements of business men of Mayville.

To prevent you from doing this we give you grave and solemn warning that if you see a little book with every tenth other word misspelled, with 1,068 names in, and headed "Please do not loan this book," you will know it is the new City Directory(?)

May the time soon come when we will be delivered from such fakes.

They are no good to man or beast, and the sooner our merchants cease to patronize such bold cases of imposition and ridiculous pieces of advertising, the better it will be for all concerned, and the sooner we will have cause to rejoice for a grand deliverance. We will be delivered of an advertising fake that is as injurious as it is unfair.

The author of this new "City Directory(?)" says in his "preface":

"In compiling this Directory I have spared neither time nor means."

Well, now, he didn't need to say that. The book itself shows he has spared no time on it.

Then the author says:

"I think the Republic will sustain my thought, it is an accurate manual of the city."

No we won't, either—not this part of it at least. We really do not think that such an "intellectual star" can entertain such a thought. You are certainly not foolish enough to think it an "accurate manual".

Mayville has a population of over 8,000; you have 1,068 names in your book and many of them are repeated. Not 1,000 names of individuals are published in your Directory(?) You certainly haven't the nerve to ask us to "sustain your thought?" But then a person who has nerve enough to publish over his name such a book as the "City Directory," and call it an "accurate manual," has nerve enough to do almost anything once.

Why hasn't the "City Directory(?)" the names of many residents of the city who were born and reared within the city limits and who are now among the principal business men of the city?

Where are the names of H. P. Chenoweth, Chris. D. Russell, Thos. M. Russell, Stanley Watson, George Atkinson, C. D. Shepard, Charles Trapp, Captain Jacob Miller, Harry Haulman, William Spromberg, Thomas Dickson, Thomas Coleman, William H. and Charles B. Davis of the mail service, William Clooney, Benjamin Huff, Charles T. Huff, Thomas Hancock, O. D. Burgoyne and hundreds of others we could mention?

Oh, it is a great City Directory(?) we don't think.

And then in his "preface" did you see this beautiful piece of English grammar?

"I desire especially to instruct your attention," etc.

Is not that worthy of your attention? "Instruct your attention." That's a new line sure enough, and THE LEDGER hastens to use it this morning before the originator secures a copyright to it.

Wonder where the author got that line anyhow?

If the author would have copied the list of subscribers of THE DAILY LEDGER he would have had more names than he did secure.

But this is enough. The book is the greatest farce ever on our table, and why the business men accept of such is more than we can understand.

It may be out of sympathy this time on the promise of the author never to do the like again within a hundred miles of Mayville. If he promises this every citizen of Mason county should contribute to his fund.

THE Executive Committee of the Kentucky State Teachers' Association has decided that the annual meeting of the association this year shall be held in Danville, June 27-29.

GEORGE MCANDREWS, white, and Willie Fields, colored, boys between 15 and 18 years, quarreled at Lexington when McAndrews drew his knife and stabbed Fields between the shoulders, inflicting a dangerous wound.

A DELEGATION consisting of 130 State College boys went down from Lexington to Frankfort Saturday on a pleasure excursion. They visited the State House, the Penitentiary, the Feeble-minded Institute and other places of interest. We presume the reporter mistook the Legislature for the Feeble minded Institute.

WHAT NEXT?

CAN'T THE GOLD BRICK MAN COME THIS WAY?

He Might Find a Quick Purchaser For His Wares, When You Think What the New City Directory(?) Is.

Mayville has a new "City Directory(?)".

We deem it advisable to tell you in the beginning that it is a "City Directory(?)" for you would never know it in the world if someone didn't tell.

You might take it for a patent medicine pamphlet, with a few advertisements of business men of Mayville.

To prevent you from doing this we give you grave and solemn warning that if you see a little book with every tenth other word misspelled, with 1,068 names in, and headed "Please do not loan this book," you will know it is the new City Directory(?)

May the time soon come when we will be delivered from such fakes.

They are no good to man or beast, and the sooner our merchants cease to patronize such bold cases of imposition and ridiculous pieces of advertising, the better it will be for all concerned, and the sooner we will have cause to rejoice for a grand deliverance. We will be delivered of an advertising fake that is as injurious as it is unfair.

The author of this new "City Directory(?)" says in his "preface":

"In compiling this Directory I have spared neither time nor means."

Well, now, he didn't need to say that. The book itself shows he has spared no time on it.

Then the author says:

"I think the Republic will sustain my thought, it is an accurate manual of the city."

No we won't, either—not this part of it at least. We really do not think that such an "intellectual star" can entertain such a thought. You are certainly not foolish enough to think it an "accurate manual".

Mayville has a population of over 8,000; you have 1,068 names in your book and many of them are repeated. Not 1,000 names of individuals are published in your Directory(?) You certainly haven't the nerve to ask us to "sustain your thought?" But then a person who has nerve enough to publish over his name such a book as the "City Directory," and call it an "accurate manual," has nerve enough to do almost anything once.

Why hasn't the "City Directory(?)" the names of many residents of the city who were born and reared within the city limits and who are now among the principal business men of the city?

Where are the names of H. P. Chenoweth, Chris. D. Russell, Thos. M. Russell, Stanley Watson, George Atkinson, C. D. Shepard, Charles Trapp, Captain Jacob Miller, Harry Haulman, William Spromberg, Thomas Dickson, Thomas Coleman, William H. and Charles B. Davis of the mail service, William Clooney, Benjamin Huff, Charles T. Huff, Thomas Hancock, O. D. Burgoyne and hundreds of others we could mention?

Oh, it is a great City Directory(?) we don't think.

And then in his "preface" did you see this beautiful piece of English grammar?

"I desire especially to instruct your attention," etc.

Is not that worthy of your attention? "Instruct your attention." That's a new line sure enough, and THE LEDGER hastens to use it this morning before the originator secures a copyright to it.

Wonder where the author got that line anyhow?

If the author would have copied the list of subscribers of THE DAILY LEDGER he would have had more names than he did secure.

But this is enough. The book is the greatest farce ever on our table, and why the business men accept of such is more than we can understand.

It may be out of sympathy this time on the promise of the author never to do the like again within a hundred miles of Mayville. If he promises this every citizen of Mason county should contribute to his fund.

THIS AND THAT.

Some More Solid Chunks of Wisdom From "Jack Frost."

No one indulges in so many idle thoughts as the poet.

Very often it is the tall man who is short in his accounts.

Some girls are so particular about their looks that they want a fresh complexion every day. They get 'em by the box from the druggist.

As a general thing the silent partner is the one who puts in the money, and the active partner the one who spends it.

It is a hard matter to get a butcher to steak a man when he is broke.